

GIRLIGAGS,

(Copyright, 1939, by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

"I see where somebody says the income tax is not as popular as it used to be," says contemplative Constance. "It seems to be possible to take something from nothing, after all."

GIRLIGAGS

(Copyright, 1928,
by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

"Being a man of convictions is nothing to brag about," says pertinent Polly, "the rogue's galleys is full of them."

GIRLIGAGS

(Copyright)

"It may be that the money I carry in my stocking doesn't pay any interest," says Frivolous Flo, "but you can bet your Sunday hat it draws a lot."

GIRLIGAG

(Copyright)

"In this day of living out of cans," says cynical Sue, "it looks as if the next crop of husbands will be growling over the soup to which wife doesn't add hot water like mother used to."

GIRLIGAGS

"The modern version seems to be," says Reno Ritzy, "'Go West young lady, go West.'"

© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

GIRLIGAGS

(Copyright, A.S. by The Bill Syndicate, Inc.)

"A dumbbell is one of those girls," says catty Katie, "who is as backward in the head as she is in her age."

WNU Service.